

TheLessonMachine.Com
Multiple Program Usage Options / Points of Information

Traditional / Nontraditional Education Programs	Instructional Professionals in Training
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Literacy Development • Cultural Exposure • Introduction to Similarities in Tribal / Cultural Tales • Vocabulary Development • Writing Skills Development • Geography Skills • Journal Development • Script Development (preparation for freelance job market) • Research Skills • Group and Self Assessment • Portfolio Development • Increased Language Skills • Preparation for Work or Higher Education Environments 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Introduction to Lesson Format Used in Professional Setting • Increased Familiarity With Instructional Literature and Using Traditional Literature for Instructional Purposes • Preparing Base of Professional Instruction Skills to Draw Upon When Entering or Re-entering Work Force • Activity Preparation Skills (organization of materials, timing of lessons, giving directions, monitoring student progress)
Crisis / At Risk Situations	Family and Individual Literacy
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Boys and Girls Clubs (tutoring, research, homework help) • Big Brothers / Big Sisters • Jails / Juvenile Court (children are often checked in for a night or weekend until they can be processed into the system due to family trauma) • Juvenile Detention Facilities • Battered / Homeless Shelters • ESL / Academically Challenged Students • Terminal Children's Wards / Long Term Care / Hospital Education Coordinator Support 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Appropriate, Fun and Academic Activities for Parent and Child to Work on Together. • Increased Literacy Skills Within the Family Unit (Promoting Greater Independence and Job Readiness Skills) • Quality Parent, Child & Sibling Time • Great for ESL Individuals or Families